

Don't swallow up your NHS!

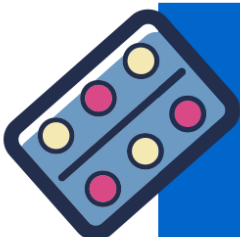

Your doctor may not prescribe your usual medicine if ...

It can be bought over the counter without a prescription

It has limited clinical benefit or effectiveness

There is a better value alternative

This could save over £3m, which can be spent on drugs and treatments that have more impact on people's health.